

I strongly object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary. This is a clear example of a practice which should be opposed by the FCC and censured. You would be doing the same if it was an anti-Bush propaganda piece.

Any company using the public airwaves free of charge is legally obligated to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions demonstrate a need for stronger media ownership. The license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
